

Dear Treasured Friends...

It's almost summer! Evenings stay lighter longer. Hopefully we all will enjoy a taste of leisure or travel or both, even if a long weekend somewhere. Ah, sounds relaxing just to think about it. One thing on the plate here at FPRC is planning the Gala. No time like the present to lay the groundwork for an event that will most likely happen in early November.

FPRC is a very valuable resource for the individuals and families in our growing community! We offer free, confidential and relationship-building services that include, but are not limited to: free pregnancy tests; free limited ultrasound; goods and supplies like food, formula and clothing for babies and young infants; furniture for infants (when available); compassionate, non-judgmental peer discussions; post-abortion care for both men and women; on-going parenting classes; empowering opportunities for young men and women to be equipped to make healthy life choices, and more. All of our work is client-centered and, because we are fostering relationships, our clients receive a level of care here that they may not experience anywhere else!

Our annual gala is a favorite each year. It is one of our biggest funds-raising events. While the dinners of past years have been swell, I am trying something quite different this year! Dinners are quite honestly costly and, when all was said and done last year, $3,200.00 was spent on a lovely meal. That money could have perhaps been put to better use in our coffers. I trust you see my point.

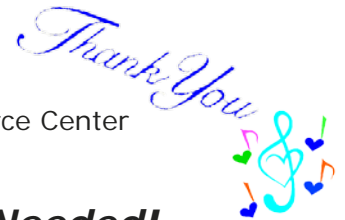

With all that being said we still want to provide YOU with an amazing event this year and we believe we've found a way to do it. At the Monrovia Historical Museum, a local venue noted for its unique and pleasant surroundings, we will have a truly amazing Saturday afternoon of Silent and Live Auctions, live DJ with an on-going program while you enjoy delicious hors d'oeuvres with wine or sparkling cider. We believe you will have a lively and lovely afternoon well-spent in the company of friends while sowing into this incredible ministry and community service. And YOU will enjoy the particular satisfaction of knowing that every penny is benefiting the Center!

In an effort to encourage food and beverage purveyors from within our community to help FPRC and be recognized for their contribution, I am asking local business owners to donate food and drink. Our foods will be varied in order to allow many businesses to contribute without burdening one in particular. IF YOU ARE A FOOD OR BEVERAGE PROVIDER...please consider taking part in FPRC's Gala 2010!!! IF YOU ARE AN ARTISAN OR GIFTS AND SERVICES PROVIDER...please consider making a contribution toward an amazing Silent Auction!!! Thank you, one and all, for your generosity! Our Federal ID Number is provided for your business purposes below.

A Web Master for Our New Website

As you may know things change rapidly on the internet. A web site that was wonderful a few years ago may not have everything it needs now. For FPRC a new friend, Web Master Monica, is making all the needed changes to our site. So when you came to the Open House you will see the display of all the new graphics, new narratives and easier contact information that will soon be available to anyone that searches us out. There will be fully downloadable resources, added links for contacts and new descriptions and contact information for FPRC. There will even be a Web Site card for the Street Fair. Be sure to go on the Internet (www.foothillsprc.org) to check it out and thank Web Master Monica for volunteering her valuable time and talents!
